Let's all Stay Safe

All of us are concerned about the virus that has invaded even Banning. Now the board met on Sunday by Zoom on telephones, iPads, and laptops, etc. We are attempting to find a way to get as many as can on a conference type virtual monthly Orchid Society meeting. Hopefully this will be available for the May meeting. We will send out another announcement that will give all the details. This will be a learning experience – It will be fun. That way we will have a few “social distance” miles between us. The Gonzales Community Center in Colton is closed until further notice because of the virus. We will let everybody know when we are cleared to meet again.

HAVE THAT ORCHID IN BLOOM JUDGED

The virtual orchid meeting Show-N-Tell will continue. You are asked to photograph and e-mail, or text, Steve Trammell photos of your orchids that are blooming this month. Your photo must reach Steve by midnight on April 20, 2020. If you can, or are willing, to judge one of the groups of orchids please let Steve know. The placement points will count toward your show totals

Five Orchids are AVAILABLE:

The society purchased $100 dollars' worth of blooming orchids from Gubler's for the Spring Garden Festival orchid sale table. We sold all but five blooming plants and you may purchase or bid on these for a starting bid of ten dollars ($10) each. Send your bids to Steve Trammell. The bidding stops at Midnight on April 20, 2020. If you win the bid, you will have to make arrangements with Steve to find out on which street corner the orchids will be sitting and waiting for you. If you wait until they finish blooming, the price will go up to $20 each. They are just like children, the older they get the more expensive they become! Do not let this opportunity get past you.

Orchid Number One:

Beallara Pacific Pastel 'Mauna Loa'

Please note that this orchid is not blooming any more.

Orchid Number Two and Three:

BL Frangrance

Note: we have two plants

Orchid Number Four:
Phalaenopsis Peacock x
Phalaenopsis Yushan Mongo

Orchid Number Five:
Phalaenopsis Younghome Beauty
Golden
