The November 8th program is still in the making. Come and be surprised.

Note the Society is having problems meeting the budget. The out go exceeds the in flow and the board is working on this problem. The board is considering some changes in the venue. The main expense is the cost of speakers and the plant tables. The character of the society has been slowly changing as our green house members are fewer and fewer and we have more members that are patio and window sill growers of orchids. Please give the survey you have received careful consideration as it will give us guidance into the future.

Four of our members received AOS awards for their orchids that were entered in the AOS Orchid Show at Gubblers in Landers. The growers are Sandy Collins, Jamie Stewart, Ron and Linda Lang. Congratulations.

Plans for the 2019 Auction are in the making. Dates, times, place will be announced. Keep posted.

Save the date for The Spring Garden Festival and Flower show at the Lawrence Hutton Community Center in Colton on March 2, 2019. RSBOS is one of the three sponsoring groups of this exciting event. Plan to attend and exhibit your orchids.

Christmas potluck in the December meeting is coming up fast December 13. Please let Nessa know in by December 5 if you plan to attend so we do not over order the main course. Each person is asked to bring a side dish and a friend that might be interested in the society would be nice.

Welcome to new members Robert & Clotilde Dvoran and Raymond & Linda Aquilar
